SPEAKER

Mr Philippe Lortie

Philippe Lortie is First Secretary of The Hague Conference on Private International Law, a global inter-governmental organisation that works to achieve cross border co-operation in civil and commercial matters. Mr Lortie will speak about the current work of the Hague Conference and about the Peter Nygh Hague Conference Internship, which is awarded each year to a graduate or post graduate student of an Australian law school by the ILA (AB) and the Australian Institute of International Affairs. In 2016 the 11th Peter Nygh Hague Conference Intern will travel to the Hague to undertake a six month internship with the Hague Conference on Private International Law.
